OUR PRESIDENT

This is the second year that Larry Slobody has been serving as the President of our Alumni Association.

Dr. Slobody has been associated with our College all of his professional life, first as intern and resident in Pediatrics at Metropolitan Hospital, and then as Fellow, Instructor, Assistant and Associate Professor, and finally, as Professor of Pediatrics from 1948 to the present.

He is a member of the American Pediatric Society and Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics. He was Chairman of the Section of Pediatrics of New York Academy of Medicine and Chairman of the Pediatric Advisory Committee to the Department of Health, and on the Board of Directors of the Coordinating Council of Cerebral Palsy.

He received the first award given by the Association for the Help of Retarded Children for the physician who has contributed most in this field. His textbook on "Clinical Pediatrics" is now going into its second edition.

Larry now has three children and his wife, Evelyn, who all root enthusiastically for New York Medical College.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES IN THE SCHOOL OF NURSING — 1954

Christmas activities in the School of Nursing started with a Student-Faculty Tea, Monday, December 13th in the Ninth Floor Student Lounge. Not only students and faculty joined in the festivities but friends in all departments of the College and Hospital came to make the affair complete.

The same evening Santa Claus and his Assistant came to the Student Nurses and members of the Faculty. Each year Santa increases in popularity but never before did he have such an able assistant; and of course Mrs. Santa Claus' was unique.

In a similar fashion the students and faculty of the School of Nursing participated in the College party on December 16th; the students singing Christmas Carols before Santa arrived.

The Christmas Dance which followed the College party was one of the gayest dances on record and requests have come in to have them more often.

It seems that each year brings more unity to the College, School of Nursing and the Hospital and it is difficult to separate one from the other in play as well as work.

Happy New Year to All.

HELEN M. DAUM,
Director of Nursing

Dear Fellow Alumni,

Thank you for your splendid cooperation and help during this past year. The great advances and bright future of New York Medical College depend on your continued interest and devotion. It will always be true that when we help our College, we help ourselves.

May the New Year be a happy, healthful one for you all and may our Alma Mater continue its outstanding development!

Sincerely yours,
LAWRENCE B. SLOBODY, M.D.

President

NOVEMBER MEETING BOARD OF GOVERNORS

The meeting of the Board of Governors of the Alumni Association of the New York Medical College was called to order at 3:00 P.M. in room 509 of the College on Thursday, October 28th, 1954 by the President, Dr. Lawrence Slobody.

Present: Drs. Slobody, Kuntze, Stone, Cornell, Salzman, Napp, Blankfein, Hayner, Turtz, Hetrick, Fobes, Snyder, Herrlin and Lillick.

PUBLICATION COMMITTEE: Dr. Fobes reported that with the July issue of the Chironian, due to an increase in rates and mailing by an outside agency the expense was increased $83.05 over the previous July issue. He reported that the October issue would have for the cover a picture of Dean Ralph E. Snyder and he gave a general outline of the issue to the Board of Governors. The question of accepting an add from the Ortho Co. for the back cover of the next issue was presented to the Board of Governors and accepted. Dr. Fobes also repeated the serious plea for advertising for the Chironian. Dr. Hayner then made a motion that a vote of confidence of the Board of Governors be given Dr. Fobes in appreciation of his continuing fine work as editor of the Chironian. The motion was seconded and unanimously passed. Enclosed are the minutes of the two most previous meetings of the Publication Committee.

BANQUET COMMITTEE: Dr. Carl Salzman accepted the appointment by Dr. Slobody as chairman for the coming alumni banquet which will be held in June of 1955. The probable site for the banquet will be the Hotel Ambassador. Dr. Salzman did not report in detail on the past banquet, but stated that we did not lose money. Dr. Blankfein deplored the poor attendance at the last banquet and it was agreed by all that serious consideration be given this matter. Dr. Blankfein raised the question of a lower price for the banquet but it was pointed out by Drs. Salzman and Stone that this was attempted on previous occasions whereby the Alumni Association incurred a considerable and too great a financial loss. Dr. Blankfein then raised a question of the possibility of having the Alumni Banquet at the College. Dr. Hayner then suggested that there be no business meeting held at the hotel prior to the dinner and there was general agreement on this.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: Dr. Napp reported an increase of 55 new members over last year. Dr. Napp then raised several points for discussion concerning the question of membership in the Alumni Association. He pointed out that at least two-thirds of the present 3,000 mailing list are inactive with regard dues paying, in some cases for as long as 10 or 15 years. After considerable discussion on means of contacting these individuals, changing or eliminating Alumni Association dues and withholding the Chironian from non paying alumni, the following general conclusions were reached. 1. A renewed effort to contact these alumni should be made by both letter and telephone communication and whenever possible an attempt be made to determine the desires or feelings of these individuals. 2. That all alumni regardless of whether dues paying or not should continue to receive the Chironian. Dr. Hetrick made the suggestion that a cross check on alumni association dues and alumni fund contributions might be of significance. There then ensued a considerable discussion on the matter of associate members. Dr. Snyder felt that there may be still a large number of faculty members not presently associate members of the Alumni Association. President Slobody suggested that Dr. Napp look into this matter and effect appropriate measures with the help of Dean Snyder. As a result of this general discussion it was pointed out and emphasized that an associate member does have the privilege of voting in the alumni association. Dr. Hayner then made a motion to amend the constitution so that one associate member would be a member of the Board of Governors. Motion was defeated.

ELECTIONS COMMITTEE: Dr. Slobody felt it was appropriate and therefore delegated the choice of alumnus of the year to the election committee. At this time of the year Dr. Herrlin had no further report.

GROUND HOG DAY: Although Ground Hog Day was run at a deficit of $93.16 it was agreed that the affair be continued. There was some discussion however, concerning whether or not there should be a nominal charge for all attending. In order to avoid a continually recurring deficit on this affair the matter is to be discussed further at the next meeting.

Dr. Fobes announced a December 1st deadline for the January issue of the Chironian.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:20 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

C. DONALD KUNTZE, M.D.

Secretary

Class Secretary

Robert S. Donnenfeld

440 West End Avenue, New York, N. Y.

Robert Donnenfeld, class secretary writes: "The last Chironian had a lot of information about our class, but so far I have heard little about where or what the others are doing. If you have anything of interest write it to my home address or directly to the News Editor.

Fred Spurgeon and I are finishing up the Naval School of Aviation Medicine. We have finished the academic, medical, section and are now in the flight phase. We go through a program similar to the aviation cadets except we do not solo. They probably figure flight surgeons are not expendable. The medical program was excellent with good courses in ophthalmology, psychiatry, EKG reading, pulmonary physiology and radiobiology. It was quite a headache being back at school again, but the work was worthwhile and will serve me well whatever I do. The Carrier Tripoli docked at Mobile a while ago and Marty Stahl, senior, and only medical officer abroad came over for a weekend. Needless to say it was a real reunion. Marty is now back at sea visiting European ports and picking up French perfume and other sundries. Regards to all and let's hear what's happening to you.

Dr. and Mrs. John P. Herrlin announce the birth of a daughter, Laura Eileen on December 12, 1954.

Dr. Francis D. Speer, Professor and Director of the Department of Pathology and Clinical Pathology, was the representative of the College at the Teaching Institute on Pathology, Microbiology and Genetics held by the Association of American Medical Colleges at French Lick Springs, Indiana, October 10-15.

The second program of the March of Medicine Series on Sunday, December 5th, included a discussion of the exhibit of A. A. Goldbloom, Clinical Professor of Medicine; H. B. Eiber, Instructor of Medicine; O. Deutschberger, Associate and Assistant Radiologist; and I. Chapman, Assistant Professor of Pathology and Clinical Pathology, entitled "Newer Clinical and Biochemical Aspects of the 80-100 year old Patient" which was shown at the Annual Meeting of the American Medical Association in Miami Beach, Florida.

The following papers have been presented by Members of the Faculty:

Fulton County Medical Society, Gloversville, N. Y.

"Thyroid and Parathyroid", Dr. Julius Chasnoff.

"The Recognition and Management of Endocrinologic Emergencies", Dr. A. A. Lombardi.

"The Gonads", Dr. Thomas H. McGavack.

Medical Research Forum, New York Academy of Medicine:

"Thorazine/Rauwolfia Serpentina combination in the treatment of essential hypertension (preliminary report)", Dr. Harold B. Eiber.

"The significance of the depression of individual complement components for the differential diagnosis of renal diseases", Kurt Lange; Eugene J. Wink; Lawrence B. Slobody.

National Gastroenterological Association and American College of Gastroenterology:

"Newer Clinical and Laboratory Studies in the Aged. 111. Urinary Test for Gastric Secretion of Hydrochloric Acid in Patients 80 to 100 Years of Age", A. Allen Goldbloom, Edmund G. Hadra, Julius Pomeranze, Joseph S. Rechtschaffen.

American Society for the Study of Arteriosclerosis: "Newer Clinical and Laboratory Studies in the Aged. IV. Atherosclerosis in Normal Patients 80-100 Years of Age", A. Allen Goldbloom, H. B. Eiber, Irving Chapman, Otto Deutschberger, Walter R. Loewe.

Laennec Conference, Fordham University:

"The Changing Practice of Pediatrics", Dr. A. Leonard Lohby.

American Chemical Society:

"Steroid Studies IV: A Chromatographic Study of the Mechanism of the Action of some Anabolic Steroids", and "Steroid Studies III: A Chromatographic Study of the Effect of Age and Decreased Gonadal Activity upon the Composition of Urinary 17-Ketosteroids", Sidney Pearson, Ph.D. and Dr. Thomas H. McGavack

Russian Medical Society:

"Rehabilitation in General Practice", Dr. Jerome S. Tobis.

The following medical programs have had Faculty Members as participants:

New York Diabetes Association, Second Annual Symposium Day on Diabetes Mellitus entitled "Vascular Disease in Diabetes Mellitus": Dr. Thomas H. McGavack.

Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Public Health Service, National Institute of Health-Hematology Study Section, Control of Red Cell Production: "The Relation of the Adrenal to Blood Formation", Sam J. Piliero, Ph.D.

New York Academy of Medicine, Section on Otolaryngology, Symposium "Dermatological Consideration of Ear, Nose and Throat Problems"—Histopathology, Dr. Wilbert Sachs.

American College of Physician, postgraduate course in "Newer Developments in Cardiovascular Diseases", Dr. Samuel T. Thompson.

Connecticut State Medical Society and Yale School of Medicine, refresher course. "The Surgical Treatment of Intractable Angina", Dr. Samuel A. Thompson.

Veterans Administration Hospital, Castle Point, New York, "The Surgical Treatment of Angina", Dr. Samuel A. Thompson.

American College of Chest Physicians, postgraduate course, "Surgery of Coronary Disease", Dr. Samuel A. Thompson.

First Public Health Forum sponsored by the New York County Medical Society and the New York Mirror, Medical Panel included Dr. Thomas H. McGavack.

PHI ALPHA GAMMA HOLDS MEETING IN NEW YORK CITY

The 59th Annual National Convention of the Phi Alpha Gamma Medical Fraternity was held October 15th and 16th at the Gramercy Park Hotel in New York. This fraternity is the sole existing homeopathic medical fraternity in the United States today. It is national in scope and has alumni chapters from coast to coast. Many well known homeopaths are members and quite a few of its brothers are members of the A.I.H.

The convention opened with a smoker on Friday evening, October 15th, and a business session was held the morning of October 16th followed by a luncheon at noon of the same day.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

During the entire month of March, whenever you buy anything in LEWIS & CONGER, (45th St., and Ave. of Americas), 10% of the amount of your purchase will be remitted to us as a contribution in your name, IF you mention us at the time.

NEW YORK MEDICAL COLLEGE,
FLOWER & FIFTH AVENUE HOSPITALS

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL (I.F.C.)

The purpose of the IFC is to obtain cooperation among fraternities themselves concerning social, intellectual and fraternal matters and to cooperate with the college authorities and the student center.

There are 3 members from each fraternity representing the three upper classmen. There are 5 fraternities of which 4 hold offices and one is a non office holding member. The offices are rotated each year with each fraternity serving as president every five years.

At present AKK holds the office of President. PDE holds the vice-presidency. PLK the office of secretary. AEI the girls fraternity is treasurer. Phi Chi is the non office holding member.

The first meeting of the present council was held last year in April at which time set up for this year was arranged. It was proposed that a representative from the IFC speak to the freshman during their orientation and that a booklet be handed out with a brief explanation of IFC and the various fraternities. This was done this September. Other matters which are being handled by the IFC at this time are the rushing schedules and a possible inter-fraternity dance. Each fraternity is allowed two weeks in which to conduct their rushing program. These are set in a definite pattern by the IFC.

On the matter of the IFC Dance it was noted that in the past, while this dance has been very enjoyable, it has been a financial failure. Therefore, it was proposed that this dance be informal and run on a smaller scale, and that attendance be strictly limited to fraternity members. This was agreed on by all fraternities.

Other matters which were discussed are the question of an inter-fraternity house to be set up and maintained by all fraternities. A committee was appointed to work out more concrete plans.

The IFC has been having regularly scheduled meetings and has been able to function very well with very close cooperation among the various fraternities and the school administration.

AEI held a cocktail party on Tuesday, October 26th at the residence of Miss Cassandra Yohannan. At this time we introduced the patronesses and freshman to members and faculty.

ALUMNI FUND

We wish to take this opportunity to thank Joseph Bloom of the class of 1932 for his contribution to the 1953-1954 Alumni Fund Campaign. Due to a clerical error his name was not listed as a contributor in our July issue.

Fraternally yours,
JOHN S. O. HERRLIN, JR., President

HISTORY OF CARNIVAL

The Tenth Annual Carnival brought to us a sense of deep satisfaction that once again an idea has been given life. Brief though the evening may have been, it represented to our friends, fellow students, and alumni, that the work we had done and the aid and encouragement we had received all have real meaning.

Twenty-seven years ago a young pre-medical student named Charles Lewis Murdock had to discontinue his studies because he could no longer afford his medical expenses. Despairingly he left school to establish his own business in which he became eminently successful. It was only after many years that he was able to return to his first love.

Remembering his bitter disappointment, he formulated the idea of an Annual Carnival, the proceeds from which would go to the establishment of a Student Loan Fund. For nine years we have seen the realization of his idea in our Annual Carnival. Carnival Night we witnessed the full meaning of his motivation. To the students and faculty who have worked so hard to make it a financial and festive success, it represented the culmination of months of hard and unified work. To all the people who attended the evening's gaieties, it meant a long remembered night of fun and frolic. But to us, at "Flower" Carnival means all this and more; much more than an evening's entertainment or even the satisfaction of a job well done. It means that the idea nurtured by President J. A. W. Hetrick and accepted with the continued wholehearted cooperation of Dean Ralph E. Snyder remains a living testimonial to the Brotherhood that is Medicine.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Carnival

TENTH ANNUAL CARNIVAL

When the present Junior Class, then Sophomores, started to plan the 1954 Carnival two goals were sought.

1. To raise more money than had ever been raised for the Student Loan Fund.
2. To have the best Carnival in the history of the college.

It can be objectively reported that the first goal was reached as a total net profit of $10,126 was shown—setting a new Carnival record by approximately $100 more than the previous record Carnival of 1953. As to the second goal; well, this is something that is not easily measured. However, in the opinion of the 1602 people who paid their way in (another record), most of whom had been to many previous Carnivals, this was indeed "the best ever".

General Chairman of this year's Carnival was Stephen Rous, and under his direction the overall planning started last March. At that time the Junior Class voted that the Carnival theme would be a "Continental" one; a theme in which all the rooms of the first, second and fourth floors of the college were to be decorated so as to represent a well known European city or locale. Neil M. De Stefano was in charge of all decorations and it is largely through the efforts of his artist genius and that of his well-chosen assistants, Bill Bradley, Dick Babcock, Sara Bond, Fred Coester, Ron Pion, Jim Leach, John Stavola, Joe Marics, Joe Bamford and David Stein,—that the Carnival was so successful.

The main lobby represented an International Bazaar and featured skill booths—with prizes to the winners and souvenirs to everyone who played. The auditorium was decorated "aux Rues de Paris", and had dancing until 2:00 A.M. to the music of a five piece band. The Tea-Room was indistinguishable from a Spanish night club, and offered continuous entertainment and liquid refreshments served by charming waitresses costumed as Toreadors. The second floor cafeteria was half German beer garden, and half Austrian mountain lodge—where the pleasure seeker could drink his beer on one side of the room and then cross the floor and dance to authentic Austrian melodies played by the "Tyrollian Trio". Any similarity between the library and a place of study was lost—as the good books were covered over with the gay colors of England's Epsom Downs. The Student lounge was as "Monte-Carloish" as the famed place after which it was named and patterned. The fourth floor offered the "Cannes Film Festival"—a collection of travellogues from European countries and also comedy shorts.

Frank Hall served as floor manager the night of the Carnival. It was his job to see that everything went smoothly—and it can be recorded here that he turned in a very creditable job.

The bulk of the money raised on Carnival came in through the efforts of the hard working Subscriptions Chairman, Donald Peck. Through his industriousness, a new record was set in both gross and net receipts from raffle sales.

Ron Pion handled the Carnival advance publicity with imagination and cleverness. It was largely through his work and that of Richard Babcock (who was in charge of contacting and inviting the faculty and alumni) that so much interest was "drummed-up" and that so many people attended Carnival.

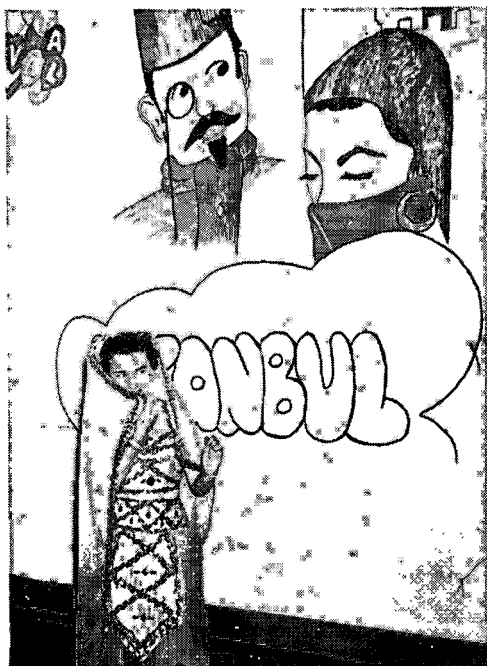

The highly original program—which simulated a U.S. Passport and which was distributed free to everyone who entered the Carnival was the "brain-child" of Dan Mintz and Jim Mooney.

The booths in the main lobby which evoked much favorable comment were planned and supervised by Sandy Sherman.

Under the management of Paul Lehmmuller, the game rooms (library and student lounge) made over twice as much money as in any other year.

Richard Mann, in his capacity as Entertainment Chairman arranged for the movies, the three full bands—and all of the entertainment offered throughout the evening in the tea room and cafeteria, which so delighted the paying guests. The difficult job of supervising ticket sales and distribution, and the management of the coat room was ably handled by Martin Rosi.

One of the highlights of the evening was the crowning of the Carnival Queen, graduate nurse, Rose Schanler. John Stavola was in charge of supervising the contest in which Rose was elected from amongst six lovely finalists.

In the raffle drawing, the first prize, a Chevrolet Sedan was won by a freshman medical student, Bruce Lupton. The television set, the second prize, went to Dr. Richard Berlin of our department of Surgery; and the third prize, an electric clock-radio was won by Dr. Paul J. Del Guidice of the class of 1942.

There were in all four bars at this years Carnival, all stocked with Ballantine beer, coca cola, plus a hot kitchen where hot dogs and coffee were sold. The responsibility of staffing these bars and acquiring supplies—and getting the attractive waitresses who served them rested on Fred Coester.

The booths in the main lobby were stocked with lovely gifts donated through the courtesy of leading New York merchants. These donations only came about as the result of the arduous and tedious job of Contact Chairman Jim Leach who worked for four months before the Carnival so that we might have superior prizes to offer the winners at the booths.

Toni Wallace, a Junior student, who came as a deck of cards, won a portable radio for having had the best costume at the carnival. The costume contest was under the direction of Fred Wuest.

The 1954 Carnival will live forever in the excellent photographs taken by Photography Chairman, Phil Levy, who was also responsible for the fine publicity photographs taken of the Carnival Queen.

One of the main reasons why this years' Carnival made more money than ever before was because all of the purchasing was done through one man, George de Guise. By his patience and perseverance in shopping around for bargains—and by getting donations wherever he could—George saved the Carnival Committee untold expenses.

Secretary of the Carnival was Dorothea Zucker, who kept the minutes of the committee meetings and had compiled a portfolio of carnival data which will be helpful to next year's committee.

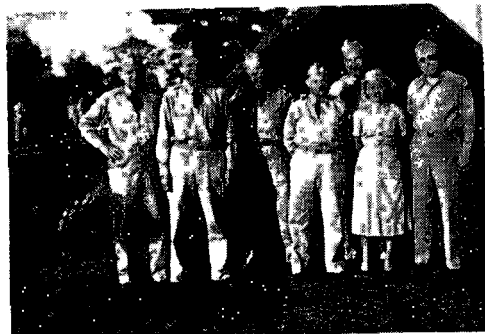

Gerry Shapiro spent many, many hours in balancing the financial books and in advising the separate committee chairman how much they could and could not spend. It is in large part due to his efforts that this was a record Carnival.

The thanks of the General Chairman and the 1954 Carnival Committee go the Student Life-Advisor, Miss Kathleen C. MacGrady for her constant guidance and helpfulness. Our thanks also go to the entire School of Nursing of the Flower-Fifth Avenue Hospitals, particularly the Senior II class, without whose help, the Continental Carnival could not have been staged.

ARMY RESERVE SUMMER FIELD TRAINING

In the picture above are seven members of the faculty and alumni who participated in a two week Army Reserve Training Program at Camp Drum, N. Y., from July 25th through August 8th. As part of this training a general hospital was set up in the field and operated under simulated war time conditions. The hospital was alternately commanded by Dr. D. McCullough Mayer and Dr. Sydney Bressler. The names, rank and unit affiliation of those who participated in this program are listed below, reading from left to right.

Dr. Barner Halpern, Lt. Col., Chief of Medicine, 376th Evacuation Hospital, Fort Hamilton, New York, graduated class of 1931.

Dr. Morris W. Greenberg, Lt. Col., Chief of Surgery, 376th Evacuation Hospital, Fort Hamilton, New York, graduated class of 1931, graduate Surgery class of 1947.

Dr. Sydney Bressler, Lt. Col., Commanding Officer and Chief of Surgery, 310th Station Hospital, General Patterson Armory, New York, graduate surgery class of 1947.

Dr. Herman Schweitzer, Lt. Col., Chief Anesthetist, 322nd General Hospital, Kearny, New Jersey, class of 1931.

Dr. Edward C. Loizeaux, Major, Medical Ward Officer, 322nd General Hospital, Kearny, New Jersey, class of 1936.

Miss Kathleen C. MacGrady, Captain, Chief Nurse, 310th Station Hospital, General Patterson Armory, New York, Student Life Advisor, New York Medical College.

Dr. David McCullough Mayer, Colonel, Commanding Officer, First Medical and Professional Services Group, Army Reserve Headquarters, Manhattan, graduated class of 1932.

UNCLE JOE FOBES GRADUATE SURGICAL CLUB LUNCHEON

The Annual Uncle Joe Fobes Surgical Club Luncheon of the New York Medical College was held on November 19, 1954 at the Marlborough Hotel, Atlantic City, New Jersey during the Convocation of the American College of Surgeons.

Members present were Malcolm L. Colmer of the post-graduate class of '39; John Snider '41; Edward E. Rockey '44; Raymond A. Morris '47; John C. Bentley, Stacey A. Besst, William G. Self and Bernard B. Wetchler of the class of '48; David Schwartz '49; Lawrence M. Rifkin and Treasurer of the club Frank L. De Furio of the class of '50 and Joseph Fobes, President.

Frederick Menick of the class of '49, secretary of the club, unfortunately was ill and could not be present. A telegram was sent to him. John C. Bentley already has his Boards and received his F.A.C.S. at this convocation. A telegram was received from Quebec from Paul Labbe and Paul Brochu of the class of '50.

There was an interesting discussion of the relationship of the clinical surgeon, the tissue committee and the pathologists of the various hospitals—the subject being acute appendicitis. It was finally decided that a great deal depended on the clinical surgeon.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

Our present paid up membership totals 1226; 268 of which are junior members. When we realize that a great many of our junior members are in the Armed Services and therefore exempt from dues, it is most gratifying that the graduates of the last five years show such interest in supporting the Alumni organization.

We believe that our goal of 1,500 members for the fiscal year will be easily reached if those members who have failed to forward their dues will do so.

TO UNCLE JOE FOBES GRADUATE SURGEONS

CHRISTMAS, 1954

*To Sunny California
And snow white hills of Maine,
To Empire State great cities,
To southlands beach and plain,
To each knight of the scalpel
May happiness attain.*

*O Angels please attend them,
To help them conquer pain,
Keep their most holy priesthood
Quite clear from any stain.
Hippocrates remember
Abstain from greedy gain.*

*Your wonderful achievements
I hear from far and near.
Your fellowships and honors,
I hold to me most dear.
I wish that I could see you
But duty keeps me here.*

*So once a year at Christmas,
My greetings to you go,
Good Health, Good Luck to everyone.*

With Love, from

LATIN AMERICAN CONGRESS OF PHYSICAL MEDICINE MEETS IN PERU

Through the courtesy of the Government of Peru, expressly, the National Academy of Medicine, the University of San Marcos Medical School, Department of Surgery, and the Hospital Obreros of Lima, Peru, the Latin American Congress of Physical Medicine is invited to hold its Sixth Congress meeting in Lima, Peru, from February 11th to the 25th, 1955.

This meeting is combined with the Pan-American Academy of General Practice, and the Pan-American Association of Medical Specialties. Cassius Lopez de Victoria of the class of 1915 is the Executive Director of the Latin American Congress of Physical Medicine.

BRACE, DONALD E., Woodside, Long Island, was born in Jordan, New York on September 28, 1891. He attended the Jordan Academy, Syracuse University and received his M.D. degree from our College in 1914. He served his internship and residency at Flower Hospital. He served as Captain during the First World War and came to New York Medical College as a lecturer in Anesthesia in 1921. He was promoted to Assistant Professor in 1930 and in 1932 was made a Clinical Professor. In 1935 he was appointed Professor and Director of the Department of Anesthesiology. He was a member of the Masons, the Shriners, the New York Athletic Club, the Helmuth Society, the New York State Medical Society, the New York County Medical Society, the American Medical Association, the International Research Society, the American Society of Anesthesiologists, and the New York State Society of Anesthesiologists. He was the author of numerous papers on Anesthesia and related subjects. Dr. Brace died on January 24, 1955 at the age of 63. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Muriel Rogers Brace, a son, Donald E. Brace, Jr., a daughter, Onnolee and one grandchild.

He was one of the greats in Anesthesia.

One of the founders—a man that graduated from the butcher cuff anesthetist to the scientific investigator and he fitted in with the best. He was a scholar and a teacher.

In his final moments he was a great story teller.

His trips to the north woods were unsurpassable.

His fishing stories were realistic, if not true.

He made the Department of Anesthesia in Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospitals the first recognized in the United States. His disciples are spread throughout the Country. All proud that their Chief was Don Brace.

He was the first Professor in Anesthesia. We lost a great man that will be missed by all.

FRANK E. FIERRO, M.D., '33

IN MEMORIAM

PURCELL, DR. JOSEPH MICHAEL, Mechanicville, N. Y. died on October 12th, 1954 at the age of 83 of bronchogenic carcinoma. He received his M.D. degree from our College in 1894. He served as city health officer.

LOST ADDRESSES

In order that we may keep our mailing list up to date we are adding a "Lost Address" column in every issue. If you know the present address of any of the following alumni, please notify the alumni office as we would like everyone to receive their copy of Chironian.
