

Yearbooks and Newsletters

---

11-1982

Inside Touro November 1982

Touro College Office of College Relations

Follow this and additional works at: [https://touro scholar.touro.edu/archives\_books](https://touro scholar.touro.edu/archives_books)

Part of the Higher Education Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Touro College Office of College Relations. (1982). Inside Touro November 1982. Retrieved from [https://touro scholar.touro.edu/archives\_books/84](https://touro scholar.touro.edu/archives_books/84)

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Touro Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Yearbooks and Newsletters by an authorized administrator of Touro Scholar. For more information, please contact touro.scholar@touro.edu.

INSIDE

TOURO

Office of College Relations

November 1982

FACULTY ASSEMBLY TO MEET

The Faculty Assembly will meet on Sunday, November 21 at 2 p.m. at the Touro Main Campus, 30 West 44th Street. The meeting will be held on the Second Floor. The Faculty Senate held meetings in October and November and will report on its activities at the meeting.

BAR-MITZVAH CELEBRATED

DR. STANLEY BOYLAN, Dean of Faculties, and his wife ESTHER BOYLAN, Adjunct Lecturer of Judaic Studies, celebrated the Bar-Mitzvah of their son, Joseph, on Sunday, November 7. Joseph read from the Torah on November 13 at Congregation Nachlas David, Brooklyn.

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement Exercises for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Men's and Women's Divisions, and the School of General Studies will be held on Thursday, May 26th, 1983 at the Martin Luther King High School auditorium. Please note that this is a change from the date in the college bulletins. The LAS ceremony will be in the late afternoon and the SGS ceremony early in the evening as in the past. The exact times will be announced shortly.

SCHOOL CANCELLATION

Should weather conditions make it necessary to cancel classes, WINS Radio-1010 will carry the news. In the event of very severe weather, please tune in to WINS early in the morning and you will be informed.

MERIT SCHOLARS

Three National Merit Scholars, a record number, are enrolled this year in LAS, Women's Division. They are Cherie Oppenheim of St. Louis, Mo., Shira Rosenberg of Elizabeth, N.J. and Frayda Stone of Columbus, Ohio.

IT'S A BARGAIN

Touro College was cited in the November issue of Changing Times as one of 50 highly regarded colleges in the nation that "offer high academic standards and below average prices."

CURRICULUM IMPROVEMENT

The Curriculum Committee is holding an Open Forum concerning suggestions to improve the LAS curriculum. Proposals for strengthening or modifying requirements, initiating changes in major offerings, and establishing a health science track for LAS are being considered. The first meeting devoted to these concerns is being held on November 18th at 1 p.m. in Room 604, Women's Division. Subsequent meetings will be announced. Those with suggestions who may have missed the meeting are asked to get in touch with DR. ANDRE NEUSCHLOSS, Chairman of the Department of Humanities.

CHANGE OF LOCALE

The Medical Record Administration Program classes have been relocated to the New York Hospital-Cornell University Medical Center, a move that is working out well for students and faculty according to M. LYNN SCANDIA, Director of the program.

BOOK REVIEW

A review of Leonard Kriegal's novel Quitting Time by DIANE LEVENBERG, Lecturer in Languages and Literatures, appeared in the Sept. 3-9 issue of the Jewish World/Long Island Jewish Press.

TELEVISION TAPE

While on vacation in Antigua, DR. JACQUELYN PETERSEN, Dean of the School of General Studies, taped a half-hour television program for the UNICEF Caribbean Pre-School program. Dr. Petersen's work for this program is one of her volunteer activities.

CHAIRMAN

Julius Berman, father of MYRA BERMAN, class of 1985 LAS Women's Division, has been named chairman of the prestigious Conference of Presidents of Major Jewish Organizations.

IN ISRAEL

PROF. ROBERT GOLDSCHMIDT, Dean of Students, is visiting Israel from November 10th to 19th in connection with the LAS Touro Year Abroad Program.

NEW APPOINTMENTS

SURI KASIRER and DAVID SEIDEMAN have been appointed Admissions Officers for LAS. Ms. Kasirer is a graduate of Stern College and has a teaching certificate from Michlala. She has taught and served as administrator at Lincoln Square Synagogue Hebrew and Hebrew High School. Mr. Seideman, a 1981 graduate of Touro College, most recently served as Director of the Central Eastern Region of the National Council of Synagogue Youth.

ARTICLE PUBLISHED

An article written by SUSAN MILLER, Instructor of Psychology, entitled "Attitudes: Starting Point for Creative Arts with the Elderly," was published in a special edition on "Arts and the Elderly" in the journal Educational Gerontology (Spring edition).

COORDINATOR

DR. DAN P. FRAZIER, Lecturer in Languages and Literatures, is serving as coordinator of the School of General Studies Harlem Center in addition to his teaching assignments. The Center is located at Harlem Hospital Health Center, New Nurses Residence.

EARNS DEGREE

RACHEL HOROWITZ, Assistant to the Dean of Students for the Women's Division, was awarded a Master's in Arts degree from Columbia University-Teachers College in October.

ALUMNI ORGANIZE

The School of General Studies Alumni Association was organized in June and elected officers in August. The association's mission is to provide programs, service and resources for SGS alumni and students.

DELIVERS LECTURE

DR. MOSHE SOKOL, Executive Assistant to Pres. Lander and Chairman of the Department of Philosophy, delivered a lecture on "Olem Hazeh-the Jewish Attitude Toward Worldly Pleasure" for the Great Neck Synagogue on Nov. 14. Dr. Sokol's lecture was one of a series to be delivered by Touro faculty members for the cultural committee of the Synagogue.

NEW PROGRAM

The School of General Studies and Long Island University Department of Nursing are offering a cosponsored Professional Nurse Program. Students who successfully complete the lower division program at Touro may transfer to the L.I.U. upper division Bachelor of Nursing at L.I.U. This cooperative arrangement was worked out through the efforts of DR. STANLEY BOYLAN, Dean of Faculties, DR. JACQUELYN PETERSEN, Dean of SGS, and Dr. Richard Sawyer, Dean of the L.I.U. Richard B. Connally College and former Touro College Dean of Planning. A similar program for students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is being developed.

TO DELIVER ADDRESS

HELEN MARGOLITH of the library staff will deliver the main address at the Phi Delta Kappa (honorary educational society) banquet this weekend at the New York University Club. Her topic is "Bookburning."

COOPERATIVE VENTURE

A memorandum of understanding has been signed by Dr. Edward Clark of Long Island University-Brooklyn Center-and Dr. Lander concerning L.I.U. programs which are being made available at Touro's Main Campus on 44th Street. The first program, which leads to an L.I.U. M.B.A., began in October. Four courses are being offered this semester in the evening. Additional courses, possibly at other times of day, in addition to the evening, are planned for the spring semester. DR. LEON PERKAL is Touro's program coordinator.

DEADLINE

Thanks go to all who submitted items for this issue of Inside Touro. Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, the deadline for the next issue will be Monday, November 29th. We want to issue Inside Touro on a regular basis so we all know what is going on at Touro, so please send items for the next issue NOW to Office of College Relations, Room 506, 30 West 44th Street.

ALUMNI ORGANIZE

The School of General Studies Alumni Association was organized in June and elected officers in August. The association's mission is to provide programs, service and resources for SGS alumni and students.

DELIVERS LECTURE

DR. MOSHE SOKOL, Executive Assistant to Pres. Lander and Chairman of the Department of Philosophy, delivered a lecture on "Olem Hazeh-the Jewish Attitude Toward Worldly Pleasure" for the Great Neck Synagogue on Nov. 14. Dr. Sokol's lecture was one of a series to be delivered by Touro faculty members for the cultural committee of the Synagogue.

NEW PROGRAM

The School of General Studies and Long Island University Department of Nursing are offering a cosponsored Professional Nurse Program. Students who successfully complete the lower division program at Touro may transfer to the I.I.U. upper division Bachelor of Science in Nursing at I.I.U. This cooperative arrangement was worked out through the efforts of DR. STANLEY BOVLAN, Dean of Faculties, DR. JACQUELYN PETERSEN, Dean of SGS, and Dr. Richard Sawyer, Dean of the I.I.U. Richard B. Connally College and former Touro College Dean of Planning. A similar program for students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is being developed.

TO DELIVER ADDRESS

HELEN MARGOLITZ of the library staff will deliver the main address at the Phi Delta Kappa (honorary educational society) banquet this weekend at the New York University Club. Her topic is "Bookbinding."