

Yearbooks and Newsletters

2-4-1994

Inside Touro Number 3

Touro College Office of College Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://touro scholar.touro.edu/archives_books

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Touro College Office of College Relations. (1994). Inside Touro Number 3. Retrieved from https://touro scholar.touro.edu/archives_books/91

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Touro Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Yearbooks and Newsletters by an authorized administrator of Touro Scholar. For more information, please contact touro.scholar@touro.edu.

TouRO

THE TOURO COLLEGE NEWSLETTER

Number 3

Friday, February 4, 1994

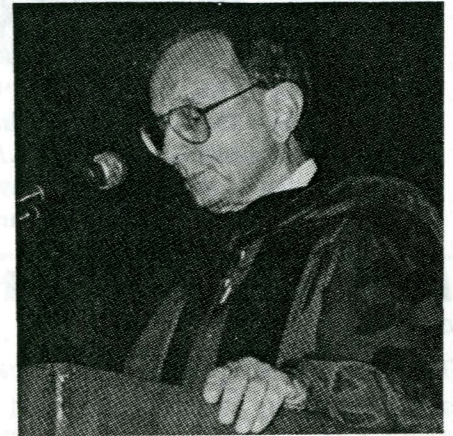

LAW SCHOOL EARNS TOP RECOGNITION

Dean Howard A. Glickstein proudly announces that the Association of American Law Schools (AALS) House of Representatives accepted the recommendations of its Accreditation and Executive Committees, and admitted Touro Law Center into membership in the AALS. This landmark achievement was celebrated in a ceremony at the Law Center, Jan. 26.

The AALS is a nearly century old association of law schools, which has as its purpose "the improvement of the legal profession through legal education." Along with the American Bar Association, whose full accreditation the Law Center received in 1989, the AALS is recognized as one of the two national accrediting agencies for law schools. In order to qualify for AALS membership, a law school must meet rigorous standards of academic excellence and demonstrate a

Continued on next page

Dean Howard Glickstein

Rosie Kahan

Thou Shalt Not Harass

Rosie Kahan, Director of Human Resources, reminds us that the College is in compliance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's guidelines on harassment.

Any form of harassment based on race, religion, sexuality, sexual orientation, national origin, handicap, or age will not be tolerated.

Ms. Kahan, recognizing the public's concern with sexual harassment in particular, defined the behavior as "unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature." Two kinds of sexual harassment, she said, are recognized:

1. Quid Pro Quo: When someone with authority over an employee

Continued on next page

D.C. Museum Visit Set for March 30

The Touro Law Center is sponsoring an historic visit to the Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C.

According to Dean Howard Glickstein, the trip is scheduled for Wed., March 30.

Buses will leave the Center in Huntington, L.I., at 6:30 A.M. A kosher-for-Passover box lunch and beverages and snacks will be served en route.

Continued on next page

FOOD MAVENS: English instructor Gary Sheinfeld and students Sam Bruschansky and Eroz Bredmhl, both LAS '94, were the first to sample the delicacies of the newly installed Kasher Carousel in Room 228 at Central. A similar unit is housed on the sixth floor of the Women's Division.

ALUMNI MATTER: Susan Stern '86 proudly displays the first issue of Alma Matters, the sophisticated, glossy LAS alumni newsletter, she edited with assistance from Ryssa Henry, staff secretary.

Museum Visit

Continued

The Touro entourage will be welcomed and briefed by the museum staff at 11:30 A.M., followed by a tour ending at 2:30 P.M. A 40-minute debriefing is set for 3 P.M. Buses are expected to return to the Law campus at 9:30 P.M.

A few spaces remain open. If interested, immediately contact Marc Saffren, Office of Development (516) 421- 2244, Ext 315, for more information.

Law School Honor

Continued

commitment to advancing the frontiers of legal knowledge through distinction in faculty scholarship.

Participants in the ceremony included New York State Attorney General G. Oliver Koppell, AALS President Professor Rennard Strickland of the University of Oklahoma Law Center, Dean John Sexton of New York University School of Law, and Touro College President Dr. Bernard Lander.

Shabbos Candles

Kindle Lights

Friday, February 4 at 4:58 PM

On February 11 at 5:07 PM

On February 18 at 5:15 PM

TRANSITIONS

Mazel Tov to:

Annette Kurz (Director of Financial Aid at 123rd St.) on the birth of her granddaughter, Victoria Leigh Milbrod.

Prof. Al Sklar (Business Chair) on becoming a grandfather and to his son Nussie '90 and Nussie's wife Amy '90. The baby's name is Ari Yehoshua.

Happy Birthday to:

Ellen Schabes (JPUA) and Elaine Epstein (Women's Division) Jan. 29.

Chaya Drillman (Librarian) Feb. 12, who just returned from a vacation in Israel.

Mervyn Passie (Library) Feb. 23.

Esther Feldman (Library) Feb. 28.

From Our Pearl:

Pearl Fiber reminds us that Jan. 25 and Jan. 27 mark the anniversary of Touro's move to the 23rd St. building.

FOR 9 YEARS OF SERVICE: Her former students and colleagues recently honored Dr. Wilma Heckler, who retired as an associate professor and chair of elementary education. Pictured with her at the reception is Dr. Sara Freifeld, Dean of the Women's Division.

Harass Not

Continued

attempts to trade sex for job-related favors such as promotions, raises or bonuses.

2. Hostile Environment: When supervisors or coworkers create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment because of verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

It is Touro's policy to nurture an environment for students and staff that is free of all types of harassment. Violations of this policy will not be permitted and will result in disciplinary action.

Problems or concerns should be addressed to Ms. Kahan at Touro Central (Ext 706) or to George Robinson at Taino (722 1575). Students are advised to consult with Dean Robert Goldschmidt.

INSIDE TOURO

is published by the Office of College Affairs. Its purpose is to disseminate news of the Touro Universe. Copy deadlines for the next issues are: February 10 and February 24. To place items of interest, contact Tracy Waller, Room 536C, EXT 201 or Yosefa Silverstein, Room 527, EXT 203.

CORRECTION

Dr. John Njoku, Professor of Sociology, who earned his Ph.D at the New School for Social Research, was honored by the School of General Studies for 15 years of service to the College.