FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

Every other Tuesday, I meet with the officers of the Student Bar Association. This provides me with an opportunity to learn of issues that are of particular concern to the student body and to make suggestions about what the SBA and student body can do to enhance the development of the Law School. This is an important and valuable meeting for me. I urge you all to take advantage of your SBA representatives and bring to them any concerns you may have. The SBA officers are very capable representatives, and I am sure they will effectively present your concerns to me.

I should emphasize that my contacts with the SBA officers are not limited to these regularly scheduled meetings. Your representatives are welcome in my office anytime they have serious concerns to raise. I also hold periodic forums open to the entire Touro community where I invite your questions and comments. Finally, my door always is open to any member of the Touro community who feels that there is some important matter that he or she wishes to bring to my attention and discuss with me.

TEL AVIV UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL EXCHANGE PROGRAM

We are proud to be conducting a student exchange program in which five Touro students will visit Israel for 10 days beginning in late December. This will be followed by a visit to Touro by five Israeli students. Special meetings will be arranged for Law Center students at Israeli Courts, the Ministry of Justice, and the Knesset. Students will live with Israeli families or law students.

Students who wish to conduct research and attend classes taught in Hebrew or classes in which a fluency in Hebrew is not required, will have the opportunity to do so.

All students interested in this program should speak to Dean Cohen immediately.

TO ALL ORGANIZATIONS

It is extremely important that all organizations clear all activity dates with Dean Saewitz. A Room Request form should be completed. This policy will prevent scheduling more than one activity on the same date at the same time. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

NEW FACES AT TOURO

It is our pleasure to welcome three Huntingtonians to our staff.

Ava Blackwell is Dean Groff's new secretary. Once again, you will be able to receive knowledgeable answers to the many questions which need to be answered by the Office of the Registrar. Ava's husband, Dr. John Blackwell, is the area conference minister for the United Church of Christ. Together with their three children, they reside in Huntington and we are delighted to have Ava join our staff.

Lisa Bongiovani is our new Mailroom Coordinator. She is replacing David Grimmig who has decided to continue his studies at the New York Institute of Technology. It hasn't taken Lisa very long to realize how much we appreciate the many important tasks she performs for the Touro community.

Although we will miss David, we are fortunate to have another member of the Grimmig family join our staff. Lynn must have heard good things about Touro! She will be a welcome addition to the Faculty secretarial staff.

Mitzi Popkin is not a new face around Touro, but she will be assuming a new position this week. She will be Secretary to Mr. Dan Jordan, Head Law Librarian. Their new office is in Room 105. Stop by to say hello.

Good luck to all!

NASSAU-SUFFOLK WOMEN'S BAR ASSOCIATION

PIEPER BAR REVIEW INFORMATIONAL MEETING

Come and meet J. Gardiner Pieper, J.D., LL.M., on Wednesday, Oct. 1, 1986 at 12:00 noon in the Auditorium. This is your opportunity to meet Mr. Pieper and become acquainted with his course, his teaching methods and have any questions of concern answered.

This lecture is sponsored by Pieper Bar Review Course and is not necessarily endorsed by the law school.

REGARDING POSTERS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Posters and announcements for approved functions at the school should be posted on bulletin boards. Nothing should be posted on the walls, doors or lockers in the school. Also, lately, some individuals have been taking down announcements posted by some organizations. Obviously, this is not acceptable or permissible.
