FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

One exciting aspect of being at a new law school is that you participate in many firsts. On Tuesday, October 28th we have the first lecture in our Distinguished Lecture Series. Christopher Sallon, a prominent British barrister will speak on "The Reform of the British Criminal Trial System." I feel confident that one day our Distinguished Lecture Series will be nationally known. Please come to the first lecture so that you can tell your children and grandchildren that you were there when it all began.

On Wednesday, October 29th we will hold the second part of the four part program sponsored with us by the Nassau and Suffolk Bar Associations. The speakers at this session will be Andrew Simon, Dean, Nassau Academy of Law and Joel Asarch, Counsel, Nassau Academy of Law.

Apparently, there are many camera shy law students. This year, we are planning to include photos in the Student Directory. All first year students have been photographed for their I.D. cards. We have urged students in other classes to have photos taken so their pictures can be included in the Student Directory as well. Unfortunately, less than 50 second, third and fourth year students have appeared for photographs. We are going to make two final attempts to have you come and be photographed so that our Student Directory can be as complete as possible. On Thursday, Oct. 30th from 5:00 - 7:00 pm and on Tuesday, November 4th from 12:00 - 2:00 pm, David Engelsher will be available for picture taking. I hope those of you who have not been photographed - and that is a vast majority of second, third and fourth year students - will allow our cameras to capture your likeness. I am sure a Student Directory with photographs will be most useful to all of us.

WOMEN'S BAR ASSOCIATION MEETING

The Women's Bar Association has invited Ellen Nesbitt to Touro. Ms. Nesbitt, a victim of discrimination in the Air National Guard, has taken her case to court and will share this experience with us. This event will take place on Monday, October 27th at 3:00 pm in the Moot Court Room. Please join us. Refreshments will be served.

MOOT COURT BOARD HAPPENINGS

The Moot Court Board cordially invites you to the semi-final and final rounds of the John S. Bainbridge Moot Court Competition.

Both rounds will be held on November 2, 1986 in the Moot Court Room. The semi-final rounds will begin at 12:00 noon and the final rounds will begin at 5:00 pm. We are proud to announce that the judges for the semi-final rounds will be Suffolk County District Judges Anthony R. Corso, Joel L. Lefkowitz and W. Bromley Hall. The judges for the final round will be the Honorable Roger Miner (U.S. Court of Appeals, 2nd Circuit), John S. Bainbridge and Carol Eisenberg (Taylor, Atkins and Ostrow, Esqs.)

Your support and attendance will be appreciated by the Moot Court Board.

Students will live with Israeli families or law students.

Any student interested in this program should speak to Dean Cohen as soon as possible.
