THE SECOND ANNUAL FAMILY DAY - NOVEMBER 22, 1987

All students and their families are encouraged to attend the Second Annual Family Day at the Law Center. On Family Day, parents, spouses and friends of Law Center students and alumni will have an opportunity to tour our facility. Dr. Bernard Lander, President of Touro College, Dean Howard A. Glickstein and Mr. Harvey Rosenberg, President of the Law Center's Friends' Association will make presentations on the achievements of the College and the Law Center and will outline our plans for the future. Members of the faculty and administration will be available to answer any questions you may have about the Law Center. The program will include an Awards Ceremony honoring outstanding first, second, third and fourth-year students. A reception with the President, Deans, Faculty and Staff will follow. We will look forward to seeing you there on Sunday, November 22, 1987.

FACULTY ACTIVITIES

Professor Martin Schwartz and Adjunct Professor Judge George Pratt co-chaired the Practising Law Institute's section 1983 civil rights litigation program. The program will also be presented in November in Los Angeles.

Professor Schwartz also lectured on "Federal Jurisdiction" as part of a continuing education program sponsored by the Suffolk Academy of Law.

Professor Schwartz has been asked to participate in a think session with the Federal Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

Professor Steven Brock presented a lecture on the right of psychiatric patients to refuse treatment with neuroleptic drugs. The presentation was part of the four day conference of the National Association for Rights Protection and Advocacy at the Renaissance Center in Detroit, Michigan.

FIRST YEAR FACULTY ADVISORS

All First year students have been assigned faculty advisors. Please see the listing posted on the main bulletin board. Faculty advisors will answer any questions you may have regarding the Law Center, courses, study techniques, examination preparation and career plans. If you have not already contacted your advisor, you should do so. Please contact Dean Cohen's office if you have any questions.

1987-88 STUDENT HANDBOOK/CODE OF CONDUCT

The 1987-88 Student Handbook/Code of Conduct may be obtained in the mailroom. All students must pick up and sign for their copy. Evening students may pick up their copy at the Receptionist's desk. Students are expected to read both documents with care. Special attention should be paid to the definition of plagiarism located in Article III, Section A(1) of the Code of Conduct. If you have any questions, please contact Dean Cohen.

TEL AVIV UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL EXCHANGE PROGRAM

All students interested in traveling to Israel to participate in the Tel Aviv University School of Law/Touro Law Center Exchange Program during the December/January semester break should contact Dean Cohen's office as soon as possible.

The program will provide students with the opportunity to experience the challenging and dynamic environment of the Middle East and to broaden their perspectives through exposure to the Israeli legal system and distinguished academicians, jurists and law students.

FACULTY RESEARCH ASSISTANTS

A few faculty research assistant positions are still available. All upper class students wishing to be a research assistant for a member of the faculty should pick up a research assistant application in Dean Cohen's office. Please see the notice posted on the main bulletin board. If you have any additional questions, please contact Dean Cohen.

SECOND ANNUAL JEWISH HERITAGE BOOK FESTIVAL

The Second Annual Jewish Heritage Book Festival will take place on Sunday, Nov. 8 from 10:00 am - 8:00 pm and Monday, Nov. 9 from 10:00 am - 6:00 pm. This event is sponsored by the YM-YWHA's of Greater New York and will take place at the Seventh Regiment Armory on Park Ave. and 67th St. in Manhattan. For further information call (212) 751-8880.

HELP WANTED
