FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

On October 30, Michael Saewitz, after five incredibly productive and creative years at Touro Law School, took his leave of us and returned to his native Philadelphia. Dean Saewitz's former responsibilities now are being handled by our new Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, Professor Harold Abramson and by Eric Waxman, our new Director for Administration. You all know Professor Abramson. He has been with us since 1983. He will handle the academic functions formerly handled by Dean Saewitz - scheduling, curriculum, development, and general responsibility for the academic programs of the law school. In addition, Dean Abramson will continue as a classroom teacher.

Dr. Eric Waxman comes to us from a distinguished career in education. He holds a Ph.D. in Educational Administration and has been an assistant superintendent of schools and a high school principal. All matters related to the general running of the school, outside of the academic area, will be within his province. He will have general supervisory responsibility for secretarial, security functions and will work closely with the College Administration on 44th Street to insure that the services that the College provides for us will be smoothly and effectively furnished. I almost forgot to mention that Dean Saewitz left Dr. Waxman the telephone number of the tow truck company which he promises me that he will use when our parking rules are disobeyed.

I know I speak for everyone in the Touro community when I wish Hal Abramson and Eric Waxman the best of luck in their new positions.

COURSE SELECTION ADVISEMENT PROGRAM

To assist you with Registration, the Law Center will present a Course Selection Advisement Program. Students will be briefed by Associate Dean Harold Abramson on how to select courses for next semester and how to plan courses for future semesters.

The Program will provide students with important information and direction concerning core courses, the relationship between courses, and proper sequencing of courses in major fields of study.

The Program will be held in the Auditorium on Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1987 from 4:00 - 4:30 for Day students and from 5:45 - 6:15 for Evening students. Students may attend either session. All students who have not yet picked up their copy of the Law Center Handbook should obtain a copy from the mailroom. Evening students may pick up their copy at the Registrar's desk. Important information relating to Registration and course selection is included in the Handbook. Please see Dean Cohen if you have any questions.

WELCOME!

We are pleased to welcome Corinne Busch to the Touro community. Corinne is Dean Glickstein's new secretary. Stop by and say hello!

FIRE DRILL PROGRAM STARTS NOV. 17, 1987

On Nov. 17th, at approximately 3:30 pm, the first of four fire drills will be held. Please read the following directions carefully.

1. All students and staff will be required to evacuate the building.
2. To prepare for Nov. 17th, read the EVACUATION DIAGRAM for each room you use.
3. When the alarm sounds, proceed quickly and safely to the exit shown on the EVACUATION DIAGRAM.
4. The last person to exit must close the door.
5. Once outside, move a safe distance from the building (the sidewalk or the ball field). Do not block driveways.
6. Do not return to the building until an all clear signal is given by authorized personnel.

Your cooperation in this fire safety project is expected and will be appreciated.
