FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS' MEETING

On Wednesday, April 20, 1988 at 1:00 pm in Room B-3, the newly elected SBA representatives would like to discuss any concerns and thoughts you may have as we enter our Second year. This is an opportunity to voice your opinions, so please don't miss it!

PUBLIC INTEREST LAW ORGANIZATION OF TOURO (PILOT)

PILOT is pleased to announce another fund-raising raffle to establish a public interest law fellowship for Touro Law Center students. The M.J.K. Bookstore at Touro has graciously donated a Touro T-Shirt for this raffle. Tickets will be sold by PILOT members for $1. The winner will be announced on April 25th and need not be present.

PILOT would like to thank the students and faculty who purchased tickets for our last raffle for the Dinner Dance. Thanks go to the SBA for their donation of the two tickets. Also, special thanks go to the students, faculty and staff who attended our "Homeless Forum" which received media attention from News 12, The Suffolk Lawyer and Suffolk Life.

The PILOT Food-Drop will continue accepting food donations until April 25th. Collected food will be donated to the Helping Hand Mission and The Interfaith Nutrition Network. Many thanks to students, (especially, the Evening division), faculty and staff who have generously donated unperishable food.

P.S. Don't forget to vote in the New York Primary on Tuesday, April 19th.

ATTENTION: ALL TOURO EMPLOYEES WHO LIVE IN SCHOOL DISTRICT #3

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, April 19th at 10:30 am in the Faculty Library to discuss the proposition on the May 4th ballot which provides for the purchase of the piece of land on Woodhull Road across from the Law Center. PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND THIS IMPORTANT MEETING.

A PANEL DISCUSSION: CABLE TELEVISION LAW: PRACTITIONERS' PERSPECTIVES

A panel discussion on Cable Television Law will take place on Thursday, April 21, 1988 from 4:30 - 6:30 in the Auditorium. The panelists will be: Jerome Kern of Shea & Gould; Robert Lemle, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, Cablevision Systems Corporation; and Professor Michael Botein, New York Law School. The Moderator will be Professor David Rice, Touro Law Center. All students and professors are invited to attend.

PLACEMENT OFFICE NEWS

Two summer judicial internships are available with Nassau Supreme Court. Details are available in the Placement Office. The deadline is April 29, 1988.

Sign up IMMEDIATELY for interviews with the Suffolk County Attorney's on April 20th. This is directed at all those students who submitted resumes to the Placement Office.

TEACHER EVALUATIONS

If you were not present when evaluations were done in a particular class, you may pick up an Evaluation Sheet in Room 117 and return it to Linda Baurle when it is completed.

ILLEGAL PARKING: A REMINDER

A parking sticker will be placed on your car if you are parked in a NO PARKING area and your license plate number will be recorded. Any person who continues to park illegally, will have his/her car towed. Don't let this happen to you!

THE LONG ISLAND LIBRARY RESOURCES COUNCIL PROGRAM AT TOURO

The Long Island Library Resources Council and its Interlibrary Loan Committee are hosting a program entitled "Deregulation of ILL: Impact on Lending Patterns" on Friday, April 29, 1988 at the Touro Law Library. The meeting will take place from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm. For further information, please call Dina M. Reilly at (516) 632-6652.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

Student course evaluations continue to be available at the Library Reference Desk.

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH

Students enrolled in Independent Research are responsible for turning in their papers on a date that will enable the supervising faculty member to submit a grade at a time consistent with the Office of Records final exam grade submission schedule. If you have any questions, please see Dean Cohen.

SUMMER RESEARCH ASSISTANT OPPORTUNITIES

All students interested in working as a faculty summer research assistant this summer should fill out an application in Dean Cohen's office immediately.

(FINAL NOTICE) NATHAN BURKAN MEMORIAL WRITING COMPETITION

The Nathan Burkan Memorial Writing Competition, sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, aims to increase the interest of students in the Law of Copyright and to improve legal writing. A $500 and a $200 prize will be awarded to Touro Law Center students who prepare the best two papers on any phase of Copyright Law. Papers must be submitted to Dean Cohen's office by Monday, April 22, 1988. For more information, see the Main Bulletin Board. If you have any questions, please see Dean Cohen.
