PLACEMENT NEWS

1. The Placement Office will be open for evening students on Tuesday and Thursday evenings in October.
2. The DRESS FOR SUCCESS program was a huge success! The audience had an opportunity to see appropriate attire for interviews, for the workplace, and for professional social events. The program was particularly entertaining because of the wonderful volunteer models! The dinner for two at Abel Conklins, with 4 hour limousine service, courtesy of Fat Cat Limo, was won by Mrs. Persichilli. The color TV was won by Touro student, Martin Braunschweig. Many thanks to the models who brought to the program their own wonderful personalities: Professors David Jampol, Hilary Josephs, Beverly McQueary Smith, Deborah Post, Gary Shaw, and Peter Zablotsky; Professor Daniel Jordan, Head Law Librarian; Mr. Stanley Witty, Director of Administration; and students Julie Berler, William Bronchick, Vivian Chang, Adam Corin, Brian Dworkin, Amy Koreen, Marie Pergolizzi, Susan Persichilli, Evan Schwartz, Keith Sernick, Liz Shamahs, and Matt Tannenbaum.
3. CLERKSHIPS - MISSED OPPORTUNITIES: The Placement Office receives requests from many courts regarding clerkships for graduating students and for those who would be available to clerk during the school year or for the summers. Clerkships are wonderful opportunities for 2L's, 3L's and those seeking full-time positions upon graduation. Keep in mind - it will look great on your resume and will open many doors throughout your career.
4. The Placement Office receives job postings daily. If you are at all interested in getting experience and expanding your resume, check the job posting book located in the Placement Office library. The postings on the bulletin boards are only a small sample of jobs available.
5. The National Public Interest Law Career Fair, Washington, DC, will be held on Friday, Oct. 27, 1989 from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm at the George Washington University's Marwin Center. Advance registration is not necessary. Please see the Placement Office for a copy of the agenda, as well as information regarding Employer Recruitment. Please notify the Placement Office if you plan to attend the Fair. Time is growing short.
6. The Nassau County Bar Association Tea for first-year students will be held at the Bar Association in Mineola on Monday, Nov. 6th. Watch for your information in the mail.
7. Do you have an answering machine? Employers have mentioned the problem of being unable to reach a prospective employee in order to set up an interview or to discuss an application in further detail. Don't miss that important telephone call!

AVAILABLE PARKING SPACES

There is a large Huntington Township parking lot located on the west side of Route 110, between the Huntington Railroad Station and the Law Center. The section of the lot which is nearest to the Law Center is rarely filled. If you are a resident of the Town of Huntington, you may obtain a town parking sticker and this would allow you to park in that lot. From there, it is less than a five minute walk to the Law Center. It is suggested that Town of Huntington residents, who attend our school, avail themselves of these parking spaces by purchasing a town sticker.
