Message from the Editor:

We hope that all the Touro staff has found the first issue of this Newsletter enlightening. My thanks to those of you who contributed information. Please continue to do so, so that The Touro Newsletter may become a success.

We mistakenly forgot to make reference in the first issue of The Touro Newsletter as to the location of the School for Lifelong Education at the new 23rd Street site. The offices for this program will be located on the Fifth floor, together with the offices for the LAS Division of New Americans, Fiscal, and Operations offices, etc. We apologize for the inadvertent omission. Best wishes to all employees for a productive "last month of 1992!"
