DID YOU KNOW...

... that The School of Health Sciences has a Health Information Management Program? This was formerly called Medical Record Administration. Students may earn a Bachelor of Science Certificate with a major in H.I.M. After passing the National Registration examination graduates earn the credential R.R.A., Registered Record Administrator. Graduates of the H.I.M. Program earn a starting salary of $35,000 to $37,000.

The job opportunities now and in the future are excellent. The H.I.M. Program has two locations. The New York City location is: New York Hospital, 525 East 68th Street (Payson 06), New York, NY 10021.

The Program will be offered as of September 1, 1993 at the Dix Hills, Long Island campus.

For information about the rewarding profession of Health Information Management please contact Faith Goldstein, R.R.A., at (212) 746-4390.
